Today:

The San Jose Barracuda and the Ontario Reign (AHL affiliate of the LA Kings) meet for the 2nd of 12 meetings this season, the 1st of six meetings at the SAP Center. The Barracuda are 0-1-0-0 vs. the Reign this season and are 0-1-0-0 in 1 career matchup. San Jose has lost three straight games (0-2-0-1) and have not played since last Saturday in Ontario (3-0L) while the Reign have points in seven straight games to open the season (5-0-2-0) but are playing in their third game in three days to close out a busy stretch.

In case you missed it...

The San Jose Barracuda (2-3-0-1, 5pts) presented by Barracuda Networks dropped their third straight game after a 3-0 loss to the host Ontario Reign (5-0-0-0, 10pts) in front of 8,285 fans at the Citizens Business Bank Arena on Saturday evening. The Barracuda are back in action on Sunday, November 1 at 3pm vs. the Reign at the SAP Center. Ontario netminder Peter Budaj picked up his third shutout of the season with 24 saves as the Barracuda have now been shutout in eight consecutive periods. Andrew Crensenzi's goal just 67 seconds into the contest stood tall but the Reign added insurance goals by Adrian Kempe and Michael Mersch in the third period for the home victory.

Defenseman Kevin Gravel buried the game-tying tally late in the third period to send the Ontario Reign (5-0-2-0) into overtime for the second straight contest, but the San Antonio Rampage (5-0-1-0) prevailed in the extra session, 2-1, Saturday afternoon at Citizens Business Bank Arena. The Rampage kicked off the scoring 24 seconds into the contest as forward Andrew Agozzino settled a bouncing puck and sent a wrist shot over the glove of Reign netminder Ray Emery (OTL, 19 saves on 21 shots) from between the faceoff circles. With the clock winding down and Emery pulled for the extra attacker, the Reign evened the score with 44 seconds left in regulation off a drive from Gravel at the right-wing point. Forwards Sean Backman and Adrian Kempe added assists. For the second straight game, Rampage forward Ben Street provided the overtime heroics tapping in a pass from Agozzino past the right pad of Emery on a 2-on-1 rush at 3:15.
